2 LOVE
The slang entrants loved

The slang people loved came in all shapes and sizes. Sometimes humorous and light, sometimes profound and metaphorical, but always deeply personal.

SEX WITH HUMOUR From amusingly serious language to plain old 'funny sounding' words, humour appeared again and again in new sex slang. I love academically humorous ones such as 'coitus', 'postcoital', 'mating', 'intercourse'. Example words: Jojo mojo (breasts), Joystick (penis)	LOCAL WORDS THAT SAY IT JUST RIGHT Entrants shared expressive local sex slang from all around the world: Nigeria: Lola (n) A positive, joyful term used to refer to women who love women. Ynash (n) Slang for bum/ass. A well-used term with a sense of pride and appreciation for the behind!

"The best way to understand the changing world is through the MAs."

— Jackie Edmond, Chief Executive, Family Planning New Zealand

"I cannot remain indifferent when, in the majesty of the law, a women's hell is being prepared in Poland. I do this for my daughter, my niece, my students. So that they do not leave, so that they feel safe in their own country."

— Iwona: Teacher With A Mission, Defend the Defenders Project

"In this ever-changing world, change is the mindset of the people."

—Don Gunawardena, President of National Council, Family Planning Association Sri Lanka
